UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

Dear residents,

The University of Georgia is pleased to welcome the ESPN College GameDay broadcast, as well as SEC Nation to campus in advance of Saturday's football game against Tennessee. Both are live, nationally broadcast pregame shows focused on college football.

Because of the scope of the ESPN show in particular, several housing areas will be impacted College GameDay's presence on campus, particularly in the Myers Community.

- Myers Quad will be limited or inaccessible Wednesday morning through Saturday afternoon
- Parking will be limited Wednesday through Saturday and traffic is expected to be heavy all over campus as early as Thursday
- All Athletic Association parking restrictions still apply.
Visit <https://tps.uga.edu/football/impacted-lots/> for a map of affected lots
- Residents and their escorted guests will still have access to buildings but can expect additional housing and security staff presence

Fan-facing, interactive tailgate experiences on Myers Quad and at the Tate Student Center will begin Wednesday, Nov. 2 and continue through Saturday, Nov. 5. As we participate in the action this weekend, let's show the nation how amazing the UGA community is. Have fun, stay safe and GO DAWGS!
