SUBJECT: UGA Housing: Update about appointment times

Hi Bulldogs,

First, thank you for your patience as we work to include all first-year students in the room selection process. University Housing has already offered appointment times to choose a space to 5,222 students who registered for housing by April 14 at 6:20 p.m. (for women) and May 21 at 10:23 a.m. (for men).

Given that next week is the week of the July 4 holiday, there will not be a scheduled round for room selection. Appointments will resume the week of July 6 and appointment times will be emailed to students on July 2 prior to the holiday.

Since appointment times to choose a space are given based on the day/time you registered for housing and paid the $35 fee, your registration dates puts you near the end of the room selection process. UGA guarantees housing for all first-year students, so we do have a place for you, and are working to assign all first-year students as quickly as possible. We'll send another update about this process to your UGA email no later than July 2, prior to the holiday.

If you have any questions, please reach out to us. We are receiving a large number of emails and appreciate your patience as we work through them. You may also call University Housing Monday-Friday 8 a.m.-5 p.m., email housing@uga.edu or chat with us at housing.uga.edu.
